

Teddi Silverman

Vice President NCJW San Francisco

For almost four decades, Teddi Silverman has been fighting for social justice and equal rights protection and to improve the lives of women and children. She has worked as a professional and volunteer with a variety of non-profit organizations and community-based coalitions. She is the current Vice President of the National Council of Jewish Women San Francisco Section and chairs its Development Committee and Diversity and Racial Justice Committee.

Teddi received a Bachelor of Arts from University of California, Berkeley and Masters in Social Work from San Francisco State University. Her professional career has included serving in roles of executive director, grant writer, strategic planning and board development officer and fundraising, budgets, and program expansion specialist. In her work, Teddi has focused on women and youth in the areas of homelessness, disabilities, education, music, art, domestic violence, and pediatric cancer.

For over 7 years, Teddi has served on the Board of Directors of NCJW San Francisco in a variety of leadership positions, including President, Vice President, General Director, and Committee Chair. She has also served for several years as a member of the Jewish Family and Children's Services Public Issues Committee and the Jewish Social Justice Roundtable. In addition, Teddi has served as member of the Steering and Planning committees of the Jewish Coalition to End Human Trafficking and the San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking.
